SYSTEM REVIEW REPORT

The Directors
Marvin and Company, P.C.
and the Peer Review Committee of the
New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice Marvin and Company, P.C. (the firm) in effect for the year ending July 31, 2011. Our peer review was conducted in accordance with the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Peer Reviews established by the Peer Review Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The firm is responsible for designing a system of quality control and complying with it to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the design of the system of quality control and the firm's compliance therewith based on our review. The nature, objectives, scope, limitations of, and the procedures performed in a System Review are described in the standards at www.aicpa.org/prsummary.

As required by the standards, engagements selected for review included engagements performed under Government Auditing Standards and audits of employee benefit plans.

In our opinion, the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of Marvin and Company, P.C. in effect for the year ended July 31, 2011 has been suitably designed and complied with to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. Firms can receive a rating of pass, pass with deficiency(ies), or fail. Marvin and Company, P.C. has received a peer review rating of pass.
